Discontinuance of the terms "Holaya" or "Panchama."

ORDER No. G. 2553-608—G. M. 66-25-1, DATED 23RD OCTOBER 1925.

At the Meeting of the Legislative Council held on the 11th September 1925, the following resolution was passed and accepted by Government.

"That this Council recommends to the Government that the term Holaya or Panchama used to designate the ancient Dravidians or Carnatics in Mysore State should be deleted in future from the Government records and other documents and the term Adi Dravida for Tamilian and Adi Karnataka for Kannadiga Members of this community be substituted as in the Madras Government."

Government are now pleased to direct accordingly that the use of the terms 'Holaya' or 'Panchama' in all official documents be discontinued in future and the terms "Adi Dravida" and "Adi Karnataka" be employed in the case respectively of Tamilian and Kannadiga Members of this community.

Government Order No. E. A. 2093-172—E. A. 14-21-7, dated 28th November 1921, issuing supplementary instructions for regulating the filling up of vacancies in the ministerial ranks of superior service.

2. Government Order No. 1043-1102—C. B. 71-22-3, dated 4th September 1922, fixing the maximum pay of the several classes of appointments.

3. Correspondence ending with letter No. H. C. 508—24-25, from the Inspector-General of Education stating that it is necessary that teachers in Middle Schools other than those who teach the Vernacular should possess a good knowledge of English and recommending that the minimum qualification for teacher on Rs. 25 and below of Middle Schools including Incomplete Middle Schools should be a completed S. S. L. C. certificate.

4. Letter No. C. 7504—24-25, dated 14th July 1925, from the same officer stating that it has been found by experience that the minimum qualification prescribed for posts of clerks in certain educational institutions and offices, viz., a pass in the L. S. Examination or a certificate of having studied in the V Form is much too inadequate and recommending that in the case of clerical appointments in the marginally noted offices and institutions the minimum qualification for a post in class I may be raised to a pass in the S. S. L. C. Examination of Mysore or any other equivalent examination.
